Dear friend,

Jzus te ama! That is Portuguese for "Jesus loves you" and is the message that I will be sharing with the people of Mozambique. By the time you receive this letter, I will be getting on a plane to Africa where I will be for two weeks. Unfortunately, I only know a couple of phrases in Portuguese so I am grateful that we will have a translator. While there we will be spending a majority of our time ministering to women and young girls living in the villages.

Once I return back to the US, I will hit the ground running as the school semester would have begun. As I mentioned in last month's newsletter, our ministry has started a campus outreach at UNCW and I will be traveling down there once a week. There we meet students on campus during the day to witness and at night we host a Bible study in one of the dorms. I look forward to what God has planned for UNCW this upcoming school year.

Thank you for your partnership with me in the Gospel. I really covet your prayers during the next two weeks of the mission trip. Please pray for salvations, good health, safe travel, and wisdom for the local ministry in Mozambique. Your prayers and financial gifts are making a difference in the lives of people around the world! Again, thank you.

Reaching the nations,

Paula Hardee
